A big thank you to everyone who has been involved in the Yarnbombing in any way.

To those who donated wool, or made a financial donation to help us with costs. To the knitters and crocheters who beaver away for weeks and months. To all who help put up the various pieces and to those who help to take it down, wash, dry and store it away for the next year. To the husbands, sons and lads who helped when ladders and hammers were required. A big shout out to the residents of the Fair Green who used their initiative and yarnbombed their own street! And Barts Charity Shop who always festoon the front of the premises with wacky and wonderful creations (I do miss Michael D this year though). Thanks to the Thursday Morning Knitting Club in the Carlow Volunteer Centre who contacted me asking if they could contribute and brought over lots of squares and strips which we used here and there, notably the railings outside Supervalu. And thank you to everyone who stopped and congratulated us and enjoyed the craziness and colour of it all. Ladies, thank you for your creativity, your hard work, your commitment and all voluntary and for the good of our community. There are all ages and all levels of expertise involved in the yarnbomb, and it's been a blast for the past four years. I'm hanging up my crochet hooks now, so there's a position available for anyone who wants to take over for 2026! The pay is rubbish but the job satisfaction is very high and you meet the nicest people. Every continued success to Bagenalstown in Bloom!

Columban Day Celebrations

All paths lead to Carlow this July when the town hosts the XXVI Columbanus Day celebration from 11th July to 13th July 2025. This significant occasion honours St Columbanus, one of Ireland's most influential early missionaries, recognised for his contributions to the spiritual and cultural foundation of Europe. St Columbanus, patron saint of the Missionary Society of St Columban, was born in Myshall. The three-day event promises a rich blend of cultural, spiritual and communal experiences. Highlights include the launch of the exhibition 'Ireland and the Birth of Europe,' a symposium exploring the relationship between creation and spirituality given by Columban missionary Fr Sean McDonagh, and a walk along the picturesque Columban Way. Visitors can also look forward to engaging talks, such as 'Columbanus, the Man from Myshall,' by former President Dr Mary McAleese, taking place in the Holy Cross Church in Myshall. The celebrations culminate with the XXVI Columbanus Day Mass at the Cathedral of the Assumption, Carlow on Sunday 13th July. We very much look forward to hosting the International Columbanus Weekend, when pilgrims from all over Europe will gather here in our diocese to honour this great Saint.
